The Daniel J. McNamara, S.J. Endowment Fund

Fr. Daniel J. McNamara, S.J. keeps classes (and graduating classes) riveted, not only with his booming voice, but more significantly with stories that highlight his ideas, demonstrations that dramatize concepts, and insights that invite reflection. He explains difficult concepts in physics with clarity. He marries the ideas of physics with those of philosophy and theology.

Fr. Dan’s exemplary qualities go beyond the classroom. True to his calling, he has guided many students and faculty members through his patient listening, wise words, and sincere generosity of heart, whether it be a problem of physics or of the heart.

Fr. Dan forms students and faculty in many different ways: by developing their competencies, helping them to find themselves, and by being a true example of a person whose life is fully dedicated to God.

To celebrate his 50th year as a Jesuit, and to mark a new chapter in his life which begins in Davao, the Loyola Schools would like to honor Fr. Dan in a lasting, practical way. The Daniel J. McNamara, S.J. Endowment Fund will support the college studies of a Physics student from the province. We aim to raise Php 2.5 million by June 2009 in order to have a self-supporting resource. With your generosity, we can make this happen, and help Fr. Dan continue his legacy of scholarship and service.
